

Gene Wengert is president of his own consulting company. The Wood Doctor's Rx.

He has been involved with the practical aspects of wood processing for 50 years, having worked with the U.S. Forest Products Lab, Virginia Tech Extension and University of Wisconsin Extension.

He is author of numerous books on drying, sawing and furniture manufacturing. He writes monthly articles for Cabinet Maker magazine and Sawmill & Woodlot. He is a volunteer at the Internet site, WoodWeb.com.