

NOTICE OF THE 2016 GREAT LAKES LOG BUILDERS ASSOCIATION 2-DAY CONFERENCE AND ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.

The Great Lakes Log Crafters Association (GLLCA) is holding their Annual General Meeting and Conference at the Holiday Inn Express at 2422 Ridgeway Avenue Northwest in Bemidji, MN 56601. There is a 2-day conference, Friday, June 3rd and Saturday, June 4th, promoting educational demonstrations and seminars on different techniques of log building. This year some of the presentations will be on log jigs, tools for lifting logs, chainsaw sharpening, a tour of the Turtle River Wood Treatment Company, wainy-edge window casings, and settling spaces. There is also time allotted for roundtable discussions on varies log building ideas and methods and a slide show of our member's talents shown on a big screen. There is also a fundraiser auction during the conference. Our members are all professional log builders so come and talk with them and find out what is new in log home building. There will be a door prize drawing worth $400 on Friday night.

The Great Lakes Log Crafters Association (GLLCA) is made up of professional log home builders with a passion for building beautiful log dream homes. The Association's Mission Statement is "an organization of professional log builders and others interested in the art of handcrafting log structures. PROMOTING EXCELLENCE IN THE HANDCRAFTED TRADITION." The purpose of the Great Lakes Log Crafters Association is education.

See the Great Lakes Log Crafters Association's website at www.gllca.org for more information, schedule of events and registration form. You can also contact Kay Sellman, the GLLCA Business Manager, at info@gllca.org, www.gllca.org, 612-590-7133